

Congratulations to Jess Null, Senior Director of Philanthropy and External Affairs at Thundermist Health Center, on being named one of Providence Business News' 2026 40 Under Forty honorees!

Jess's leadership helps ensure that Thundermist can continue providing high-quality medical, dental, and behavioral healthcare to more than 65,000 patients each year, regardless of their insurance status or ability to pay. Through her collaborative work with colleagues across the organization, as well as community partners, funders, donors, and other stakeholders, Jess plays a vital role in strengthening the Thundermist community and advancing its mission.

Each year, Providence Business News recognizes emerging leaders based on their professional achievements and contributions to their communities. This year's honorees represent a wide range of industries, including nonprofit, education, pharmaceutical, legal, construction, manufacturing, finance, government, hospitality, and healthcare. Congratulations to all of this year's recipients!

Jess and her fellow honorees will be recognized at an awards ceremony on July 16 at 5:30 p.m. at Aldrich Mansion in Warwick. Registration information is available at PBN.com. In addition, Providence Business News will feature all honorees in a special section of its July 17–30 print and digital editions.
